Re: Edward Needham – Immediate Resignation

Pursuant to the Agricultural Policy Advisory Committee (APAC) bylaws, the Committee is advising the Board of Supervisors that on November 8, 2018, Edward Needham submitted his resignation as the APAC Chair and confirmed from APAC entirely. This notice is sent so that the Board may fill the vacancy. Currently, there are four (4) voting member vacancies on APAC as follows:

Name	Member	Representing	Term Ends
Ben Curti	1	Dairy/Confined Livestock	June 30, 2022
Open/Vacant	2	Tulare County Farm Bureau	June 30, 2020
Open/Vacant	3	Permanent Crop Farming	June 30, 2022
Scott Spear	4	Conservation & Natural Resources	June 30, 2020
Derek Williams	5	Allied Agricultural Support Business	June 30, 2022
Ron Paregien	6	Livestock/Range	June 30, 2020
Open/Vacant	7	Non-Permanent Crop Farming	June 30, 2022
Jim Sullins	8	General Farming	June 30, 2020
Open/Vacant	9	General Agriculture	June 30, 2022

Of the nine (9) non-voting members, there is currently one (1) additional vacancy representing the Tulare County Solid Waste Management Technical Advisory Committee.

Please note that the next scheduled APAC meeting will be on January 16, 2019, at 3:00 p.m. as the December meeting has been canceled.
